THE SECURITIES CONTRACTS (REGULATION) AMENDMENT ACT 2007

(AS PASSED BY THE ACT OF PARLIAMENT)

AN ACT

further to amend the Securities Contracts (Regulation) Act, 1956.

BE it enacted by the Parliament in the Fifty-eight Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. This Act may be called the Securities Contracts (Regulation) Amendment Act, 2007.

Short title.

42 of 1956.

2. In Section 2 of the Securities Contracts (Regulation) Act, 1956 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act), in clause (h), after sub-clause (id), the following sub-clause shall be inserted, namely:—

Amendment of section 2.

“(ie) any certified or instrument (by whatever name called), issued to an investor by any issuer being a special purpose distinct entity which possesses any debt or receivable, including mortgage debt, assigned to such entity, and acknowledging beneficial interest of such investor in such debt or receivable including mortgage debt, as the case may be;”

3. After Section 17 of the principal Act, the following section shall be inserted, namely:—

Insertion of new section 17A.

“17A. (1) Without prejudice to the provisions contained in this Act or any other law for the time being in force, no securities of the nature referred to in sub-clause (ie) of clause (h) of section 2 shall be offered to the public or listed on any recognised stock exchange unless the issuer fulfils such eligibility criteria and complies with such other requirements as may be specified by regulations made by the Securities and Exchange Board of India.

Public and listing of securities referred to in sub-clause (ie) of clause (h) of section 2.

(2) Every issuer referred to in sub-clause (ie) of clause (h) of section 2 intending to offer the certificates or instruments referred therein to the public shall make an application, before issuing the offer document to the public, to one or more recognised stock exchanges for permission for such certificates or instruments to be listed on the stock exchange or each such stock exchange.

(3) Where the permission applied for sub-section (2) for listing has not been granted or refused by the recognised stock exchanges or any of them, the issuer shall forthwith repay all moneys, if any, received from applicants in pursuance of the offer documents, and if any such money is not repaid within eight days after the issuer becomes liable to repay it, the issuer and every director or trustee thereof, as the case may be, who is in default shall, on and from the expiry of the eighth day, be jointly and severally liable to repay that money with interest at the rate of fifteen per cent. per annum.

Explanation.—In reckoning the eighth day after another day, any intervening day which is a public holiday under the Negotiable Instruments Acts, 1881, shall be disregarded, and if the eighth day (as so reckoned) is itself such a public holiday, there shall for the said purposes be substituted the first day thereafter which is not a holiday.

(4) All the provisions of this Act relating to listing of securities of a public company on a recognised stock exchange shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to the listing of the securities of the nature referred to in sub clause (ie) of clause (h) of section 2 by the issuer, being a special purpose distinct entity.
